Good Beginnings of Central Vermont

Invites your business to participate in an upcoming one-of-a-kind event:

The Second Annual Baby and Child Expo
[Last Year's Expo Webpage]

Saturday April 12, 2014  10 am - 2 pm
NEW LOCATION:  [Berlin Elementary School]

Vendor Participation Fee: $75 for an entire day of amazing exposure to YOUR community
Your vendor fee includes your business’ profile on the this year’s [Expo webpage] as well as the Expo Passport which drives visitors to vendor tables all day long.

Good Beginnings Baby and Child Expo will bring the best products and services…AND YOU…together in one place for the benefit of moms, dads, expecting parents, and the greater community

In addition, the Baby and Child Expo is now Central Vermont's event dedicated to the celebration of our children…of all ages!!

The fun-filled day will feature live and memorable entertainment for kids and family, a baby wearing runway fashion show packed with hysterical surprises, commercial space for baby-related businesses to present their goods and services and so much more.

We hope you will help us continue our caring work in Central Vermont by bringing your business or organization to participate in our second annual Baby and Child Expo

Please fill out the enclosed/attached registration form and send it with payment to 174 River St. Montpelier, VT 05602 or, visit our website [www.goodbeginningscentralvt.org] to pay by Paypal and download our registration form.

Peace begins with a loving and caring start to family life. We hope you will help us create this peace for generations to come.

With deep hope and gratitude,
The Board and Staff of Good Beginnings of Central Vermont
